

Sincerity Song

*Sincerity, Sincerity,
One building block of friendship is sincerity,
One, two, three, you will see,
One building block of friendship is sincerity.*

*Chorus
When I give to others,
Sincerity within,
I will see how others,
Will want to give again*

Student Class Notes:

Lessons in Living from the Master Teacher

Student Workbook Sincerity

“God helping me, “I will honor the Lord and others by choosing to eagerly do what is right with transparent motives.” “I will be all that I can be” and “I will take responsibility for my own actions.” “I will respect others’ opinions” and “I will always mean what I say.” “I will not take advantage of others.””

Students Saying & Writing together on Sincerity:

1. Who was not sincere in their giving in Acts 5?
2. What was the consequence of their lying?
3. What does it mean to live in the “sunlight” of Jesus Christ?
4. How are you going to live in the “sunlight” of Jesus Christ in your thoughts, attitudes, words, and actions?
5. What are the principles you have learned in this study on sincerity?

Students Practicing & Doing Sincerity:

What have you learned from this valuable lesson that will help you to be attentive to God and to your parents in your thoughts, attitudes, words and actions?

Thoughts?

Attitudes?

Words?

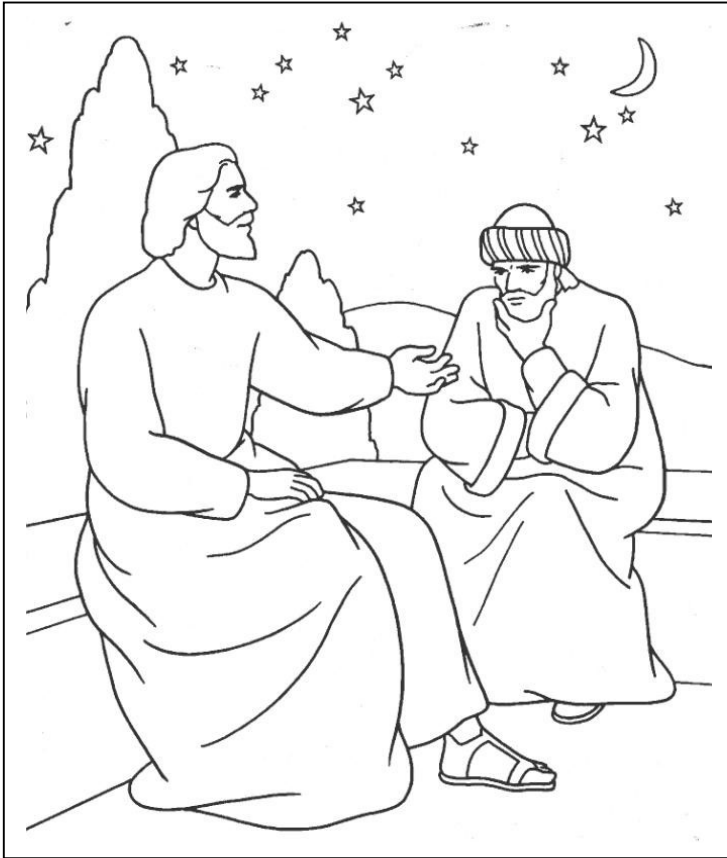

Actions?

Students Tracking Others on Sincerity:

Share with your community leaders the principles you have learned in studying the character quality of sincerity.

“And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and in depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ – to the glory of God.

Philippians 1:9-11 NIV

Students Saying & Writing together on Sincerity:

1. Write out the definition of sincerity from this lesson.
2. Write out Psalms 51:17 and II Chronicles 16:9
3. How is your Father in Heaven sincere?
4. How are you going to be sincere like your Father in Heaven?
5. What principles on sincerity have you learned from this lesson?

Students Practicing and Doing Sincerity:

How are you committing yourself to be sincere to others in your

Thoughts:

Attitudes:

Words:

Actions:

Students Teaching Others Sincerity:

Share with your parents the lesson principles you have learned in this study on the character quality of sincerity.

“My sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, You, God, will not despise.”
Ps 51:17 NIV

I Will See (song/poem)

I will see with my eyes, I will hear with my ears,
I will say with my lips, I will write with my hand,
All God’s truth that I learn, I will practice each day,
I will tell them to others, for that’s the right way.

(Singing – first time chorus)

When you learn this way, God will smile on you,
You will not forget, what He’s done for you,
(Repeat first verse again)

(Singing - second time chorus)

When you learn this way, He will make you smile,
He will not forget what you’ve done for Him.

Student Class Notes:

Students Practicing and Doing Sincerity:

How are you committing yourself to be sincere to others in your Thoughts:

Attitudes:

Words:

Actions:

Students Teaching Others on Sincerity:

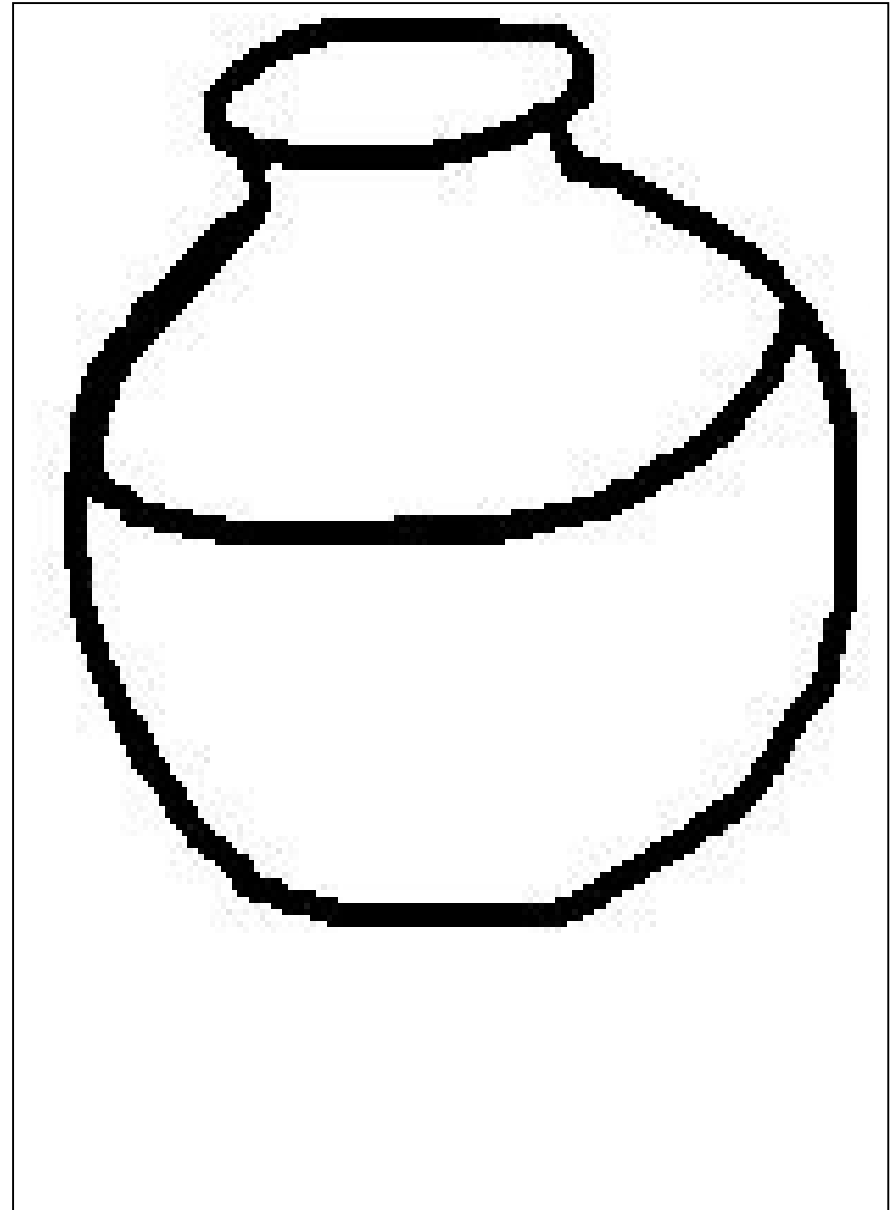

Share with your Uncle and Aunt the principles you have learned in studying the character quality of sincerity from this lesson.

“...Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice because of you; but I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil.” Romans 16:19 NIV

Student Class Notes:

Students Saying & Writing together on Sincerity:

1. How was Krupadanam sincere toward the Lord?
2. Why did Krupadanam want to become all he could for Jesus?
3. How did Krupadanam take responsibility for his actions?
4. Why did Krupadanam keep his family registered as Christians?
5. Did Krupadanam take advantage of people?
6. What principles of sincerity have you learned from the lesson?

Students Saying & Writing together on Sincerity:

1. What words best describe the character of Job, Noah, and Abraham?
2. What does the word tamiym mean?
3. How can you be “sincere” like the clay pots?
4. Have you ever been insincere with someone in your thoughts, attitudes, words, or actions? Who? How?
5. Action: If you have said something insincere to someone.... go and ask them for forgiveness...purpose to always be sincere.
6. What principles of sincerity have you learned from this lesson?

“This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, and blameless among the people of his time, and he walked faithfully with God.” Genesis 6:9

Students Teaching Others on Sincerity:

Share with your grandfather or your grandmother the principles you have learned through this lesson.

“I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore, be shrewd as snakes and as innocent (harmless) as doves.”
Matthew 10:16 NIV

Students Class Notes:

Students Practicing & Doing Sincerity:

1. Write down the names of two people who have hurt you by their insincerity. Choose to clean your heart and to forgive them. Pray blessings on them.
2. Write out a kindness you will do to each of them.
3. Show your teacher the kindness you will do for them.
4. How are you committing yourself to be sincere in your thoughts, attitudes, words, and actions?

Thoughts:

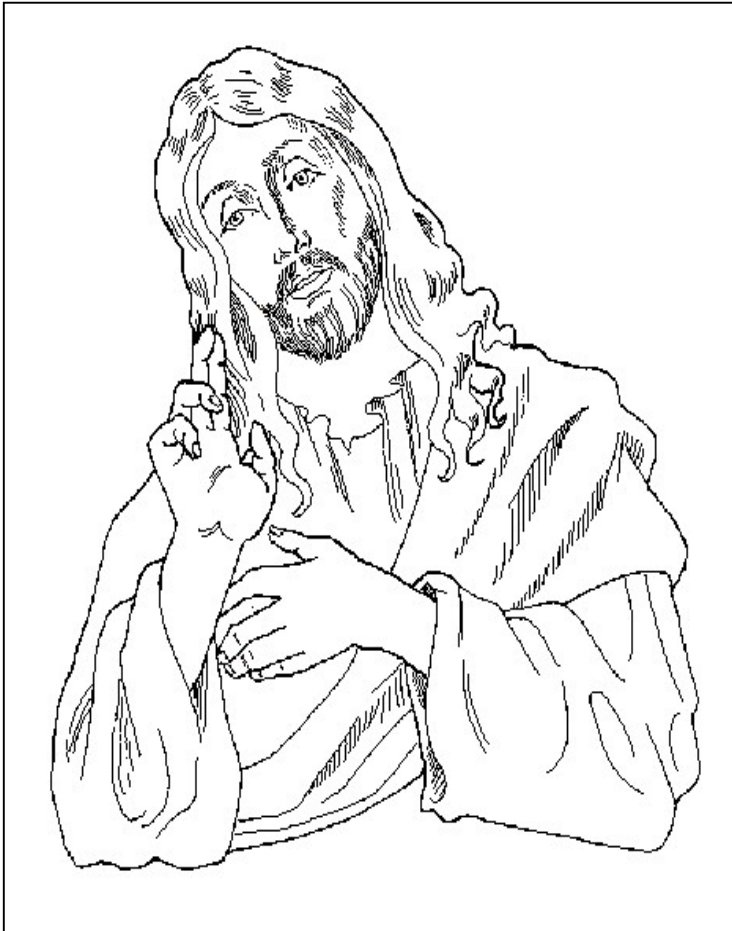

Attitudes:

Words:

Actions:

Students Teaching Others on Sincerity:

1. Share with your schoolteacher what you have learned from this lesson on sincerity.
2. Ask your teacher to share what they have learned from you with one other family in your community.

Students Saying and Writing together on Sincerity:

1. How was Jesus sincere?
2. What problems did the Pharisee's have?
3. Memorize John 3:20 and say it to a fellow student
4. How are Jesus followers to follow His example?
5. What principles of sincerity have you learned from studying this lesson?
6. Share with a friend how you see sincerity demonstrated in their life.

Students Practicing and Doing Sincerity:

How are you committing yourself to be sincere with the Lord and others in your,

Thoughts?

Attitudes:

Words:

Actions: